Blessings Project Foundation Announces Fall 2009 Grant Recipients

Winston-Salem, NC—The Blessings Project Foundation has announced its list of grant recipients for its fall 2009 grant cycle. Organizations to receive funding include: AIDS Care Service, Brenner Fit, Camp Pegasus, Clemmons School Park, Seeds of Love for Errol, Piedmont Environmental Alliance, and the Yadkin RiverKeeper. Grant recipients and the projects funded reflect Blessings commitment to humanity, the environment, arts and spiritual wellness. For more information, call 336-724-9393, email amy@blessingsfoundation.org or visit www.blessingsproject.org.

Blessings Project Foundation was established in 2006 by local philanthropist Beverly Johnston. Through a biannual grants process, Blessings Project Foundation provides funding for a variety of initiatives locally, nationally and internationally whose missions reflect that of the Foundation.

In 2008, Blessings Project Foundation awarded grants to 15 organizations including the ECHO Council, Healing Seekers, Piedmont Environmental Alliance and Nyanya Foundation. In the spring of 2009, the Foundation granted funds to Arts for Life, ECHO Council, Healing Seekers, North Carolina Conservation Network, Piedmont Environmental Alliance, PFLAG, Prodigals, Project Greenhouse, and Student Action Farmworkers. Information on grantees can be found on Blessings website www.blessingsproject.org.
